FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Sedgwick County Voter Information

(Sedgwick County, Kansas) – The primary election is fast approaching and the Sedgwick County Election Office wants to help residents with the voting process.

Registration in Sedgwick County is fairly easy, if you know where to go. Registration applications are available in a number of locations including the election office, located at 510 N. Main, Sedgwick County's Westside and Southeast Substations, the Wichita Public Library, 223 S. Main, the public libraries in Derby and Haysville and from City Clerks throughout Sedgwick County. In addition, the voter registration application is available online at www.sedgwickcounty.org. The final day to register to vote is Monday, February 10.

Most people are not aware that any registered voter in Sedgwick County is eligible to vote in advance of the election. Advance voter applications are available now through the Sedgwick County website at www.sedgwickcounty.org. Advance voting ballots will be mailed and in-person advance voting will take place beginning February 12 and ending February 24 at noon through the Sedgwick County Election Office.
